Short description:

The BarBerCut Lite game concept is simple : Players use the two control buttons to try to make the automated scissors cut the string that holds the prize of their choice, which releases the prize. Anyone can understand and play this game on their first try, making it a hit for all ages !

When players notice a cut string hanging in the machine - symbolizing a prize that another person has already won, and they feel compelled to win a prize of their own. That instantly makes this game more addicting than any other prize redemption arcade game on the market today, and those repeat players will land right inside your cash box !

Barber Cut Lite glows white to attract customers, and boasts high-value prizes of virtually any size. Prizes can even be as small as a CD or gift card! Operators can get creative with their prize mix and hang them on their own with ease. This game is unlike any prize redemption game in history. It outperforms competitors week after week, and it is sure to be a huge success at your location
